Deaths and Funerals

MRS. J. H. MADDEN

NAPANEE — In the death of Mrs. James H. Madden at her late residence on East street on Friday night, the town of Napanee lost one who spent her entire life in Napanee and whose activities were many. Had she lived until Monday she would have been 87 years of age.

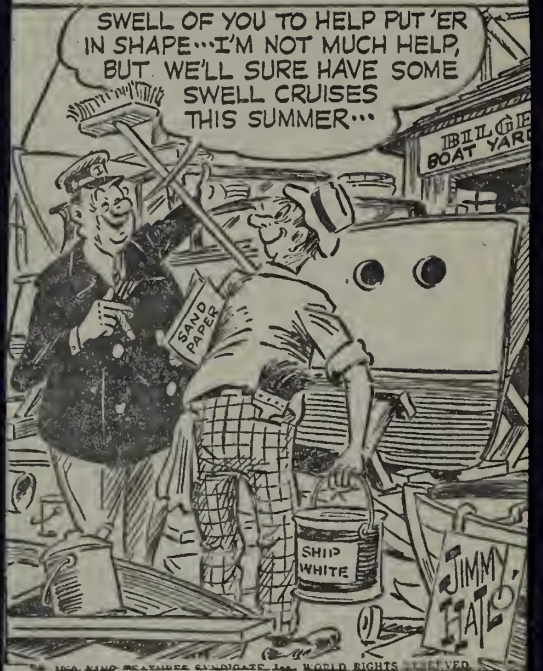

The late Mrs. Madden had been in poor health for a considerable time and for the past three months her illness took a more acute stage. She met with an accident some time ago and was a patient in the Hotel Dieu Hospital in Kingston for some little time.

She was, before her marriage many years ago, Mary Elizabeth Detlor and was a daughter of the late Samuel McLean Detlor and Mary Grange. She had always resided in Napanee and was a faithful member of Trinity United Church, and for many years took an active part in the work of the Woman's Missionary Society and the Woman's Association. She also took a great interest in the work of the United Empire Loyalist Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire and was a charter member.

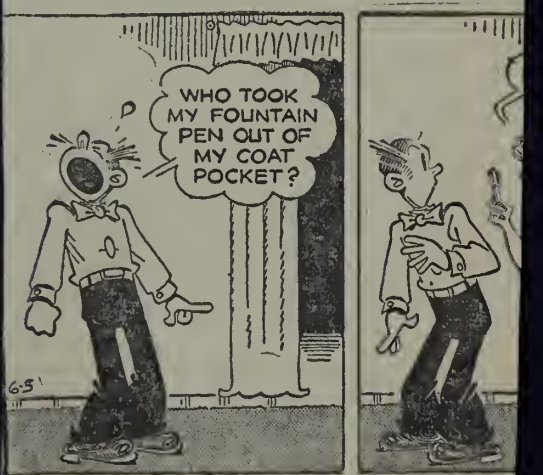

She was the wife of the late Judge J. H. Madden, who passed away in 1933. Her step-son, the late Judge J. E. Madden, died in 1947. Surviving are a step-daughter, Mrs. W. Schuster of Kingston, and a step-son, Maurice S. Madden of Lindsay. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. E. E. Richardson, and a brother, George Detlor of London. The funeral service, which was private, was held at her late residence on Monday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Noble Hatton, minister of Trinity United Church. There were many floral tributes. Pallbearers were Harold Fellows, Arthur Fellows, J. H. Moffatt, J. B. Allison, A. L. Dafoe, and Arthur Joyce. Interment was made in the family plot, in Riverside Cemetery.

DETLORS---

The Detlors are of the Palatine stock. Says "G.H. Detlor, Esq., of the Customs Department, Kingston:

My grandfather, John V. Deltor, emigrated with my grandmother from Ireland, to New York; directly after his marriage in the City of New York, they removed to the town of Camden, where they resided with their family — and at the close of the rebellion (having joined the Royal standard) — he with two or three of his sons and sons-in-law came to Canada, and finally located on the lands in the Township of Fredericksburgh, Lot No. 21, 6th concession, where he and his sons lived and died. My father removed to the town of York (now City of Toronto), in 1802, and at the invasion of that place by the Americans, in April, 1813, my father lost his life in defense of the place. There is now but one of my grandfather's children living, an aunt of mine, Mrs. Anne Dulmage, resides in the village of Sydenham, Township of Loughboro', County of Frontenac.

They sacrificed their lands, and suffered great privations. The Detlors have ever been universally esteemed, not alone in the Midland District, but in all parts of Canada, and have been found worthy occupants of many responsible positions.

Postal Card from Mrs. Eula L. ~~Bayn~~, Meaford 28 Jan 1959
Edward Caracallen's (1st from Ireland) wife was named Hill, pronounced as the German Heil, according to some notes scribbled by Miss Jennie Caracallen, being notes taken as she talked to her grandmother as a girl.
She was Elizabeth Hill, a sister of Catherine Hill, wife of Valentine Detlor. (Catherine died 10 May 1826) (John, son of Catherine, named two of his children, George Hill and Catharine Hill, apparently after his grandmother + family) (Valentine Detlor born Ireland 1726, died in Fredericksburgh in 1798.) 16

February 18, 1978.

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Last May my husband and I visited you in Kingston. Although I phoned you the morning we planned on being in Kingston you kindly agreed to see us and share information you compiled over the years on the Detlor and Roblin families.

This letter is somewhat as a belated "thank you" but is directly related to the visit and the booklet we obtained from you in the "Blockhouse at Bergen Wood". Of course I was interested to note that Stephen Roblin was one of the defenders and at that time thought he was a direct descendant. However as so happens I couldn't find any real documentation but did find both Stephen's and Owen Roblin's petition for extra land as having served under Major Ward in that battle.

To my satisfaction after deciding that mistakes do occur in books such as the "U.E. list" I feel that Owen Roblin Sr. is my 4th great-grandfather. I am now in the process of tracing their background in New York State. From my preliminary enquiries I can see that obtaining information will not be as simple as getting microfilms from the Ontario and Public Archives in Ottawa.

I am enclosing documents on Owen Roblin--perhaps if your booklet is re-issued you can include him in the index. I find it exciting to think about all the documents that aren't yet unearthed that will fill gaps in our knowledge.

Do keep on publishing your work--no doubt accounts of it will appear in the O.G.S. newsletters.

Good health and happiness in 1978.

Yours sincerely,

Marion Detlor

deed of a large tract of land amongst 10 of them. Cankallen was one - 7 years before the War. They were to have fresh deeds, each for his own share. They had not got their deeds but they had each got their own shares laid out.

Claint's share was 312 acres, 25 acres clear, built a house & barracks.

When Claint went away the Rebels turned away his wife & family & so they did to the other families.

1 yoke oxen, 1 do steers, 3 cows, 13 sheep, utensils, furniture, potatoes, corn in the ground.

Says this is not Vermont; the line runs between Canada & Arlington.

John Embury, Wits:

Knew Claint's place. He had 16 or 17 acres clear. He had near 300 acres. He had a yoke of oxen & cattle & sheep, taken by the Rebels on acct. of his having joined the Brit.

In October last upon Gen. Burgoyne's Expedition he was taken prisoner but made his escape; since which he remained in this Country with the Army.

Has got his wife and 8 children now in this place (who were stripped by the Rebels of every individual thing belonging to them) without any Subsistence except their bare provisions being destitute of money clothing and every other necessary of life except a poor pittance.

Thus circumstanced finds it impossible to live comfortably with his family, who were hitherto accustomed to live genteelly, being in the possession of every thing which could render them happy.

DETLD R

Bath, Ont., 23 Jan., 1960.

Mr. W. Allan Dempsey, U. E.,
Box 181, Belleville, Ont.

Dear 'Cousin Hetcalf':

Your query to W. Preston re Dunham-Detlor-Pemberton has been passed to me, I suppose, because Preston is a historian, not a genealogist.

Firstly, let us say that Withrow's Barbara Book is loaded with inaccuracies, as well as fictional characters. Pemberton is not a Loyalist name. It does not appear in the Parish Register of St. George's, Kingston. Nor does it appear in Langhorn's Parish Register of St. John's, Bath, or of St. Paul's, Fredericksburgh. Neither is it found in McDowell's Register (Presbyterian). There is no application of one of this name in the Land Books of Ontario down to 1793. As far as I am concerned, the name is purely fictional insofar as it occurs in Withrow's book.

St. George's, Kingston, Parish Register--First baptism 15 July, 1776.

First marriage 29 Nov., 1779.

St. John's, Bath, Parish Register-----First marriage 25 Oct., 1787.

St. Paul's, Fredericksburgh, Parish R-----First marriage 9 March, 1788.

So, it is absurd for Withrow to say that the only clergymen in Ontario capable of marrying was John Stuart at St. George's.

William Case, the first Methodist minister, came to Ontario in 1790. He brought Darius Dunham in 1793. So, Dunham could have been married in Bath or Fredericksburgh, if he had a wife.

Ganniff's Early Settlement of Upper Canada, page 292, reads: Dunham retired from the ministry in 1800, having married into the Detlor family.

There is no Pemberton mentioned in the U. E. List nor in the List of Land Grants to Sons and Daughters of U. E. Among the children of Valentine Detlor is found the following:

Elizabeth Detlor, wife of Darius Dunham, drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 8 July, 1797. Elizabeth, born 2 May, 1769; died 2 March, 1821. Dunham died 13 Sept., 1825.

I hope that this information clears away your doubts. Let me add, before closing, that George V. Detlor's diary and family chart lists Elizabeth as wife of Darius Dunham, and adds a list of her children.

My best regards to yourself, the Doctor and family.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Burleigh

DUCOLON

29 April, 1965.

Dear Mrs. Williams:

I am truly ashamed of myself for being so tardy in replying to your interesting letter. But, like most people, I live a busy life. Although I confess to myself that I am leading a semi-retired life, I still am at the beck and call of my neighbors and enemies. I am also the Genealogist for our local Loyalist Association Branch, and member, and exhibitor, of our Branch Museum at Adolphustown. We are now very busy putting it in shape for the coming season. I have an exhibit of bottles, as well as toys. My wife is exhibiting a group of early dolls, and that part is most fascinating. Among them is the doll that my English grandmother brought with her when, at the age of seven, she crossed the Atlantic in 1840.

In addition to the above, I spend as much time as I can spare in answering correspondence, such as yours, as well as working on a book which very likely will never be published and which I hope will be called "Tales of the Old Bath Road." Some day, perhaps, it may be achieved.

Easter week--Sunday A. M. to Saturday P. M.--my wife and I, with my daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter of 4 drove to New Martinsville, W. Va., to spend a few days with my son, Peter, who is a biochemist at the Mobay firm in that town. We naturally had a very busy week--at the University in Pittsburgh, an Indian museum in connection with an Indian mound in Moundsville, and a day in the hills of West Virginia where the cattle have the left legs shorter than the right so that they can negotiate their way along the hillside.

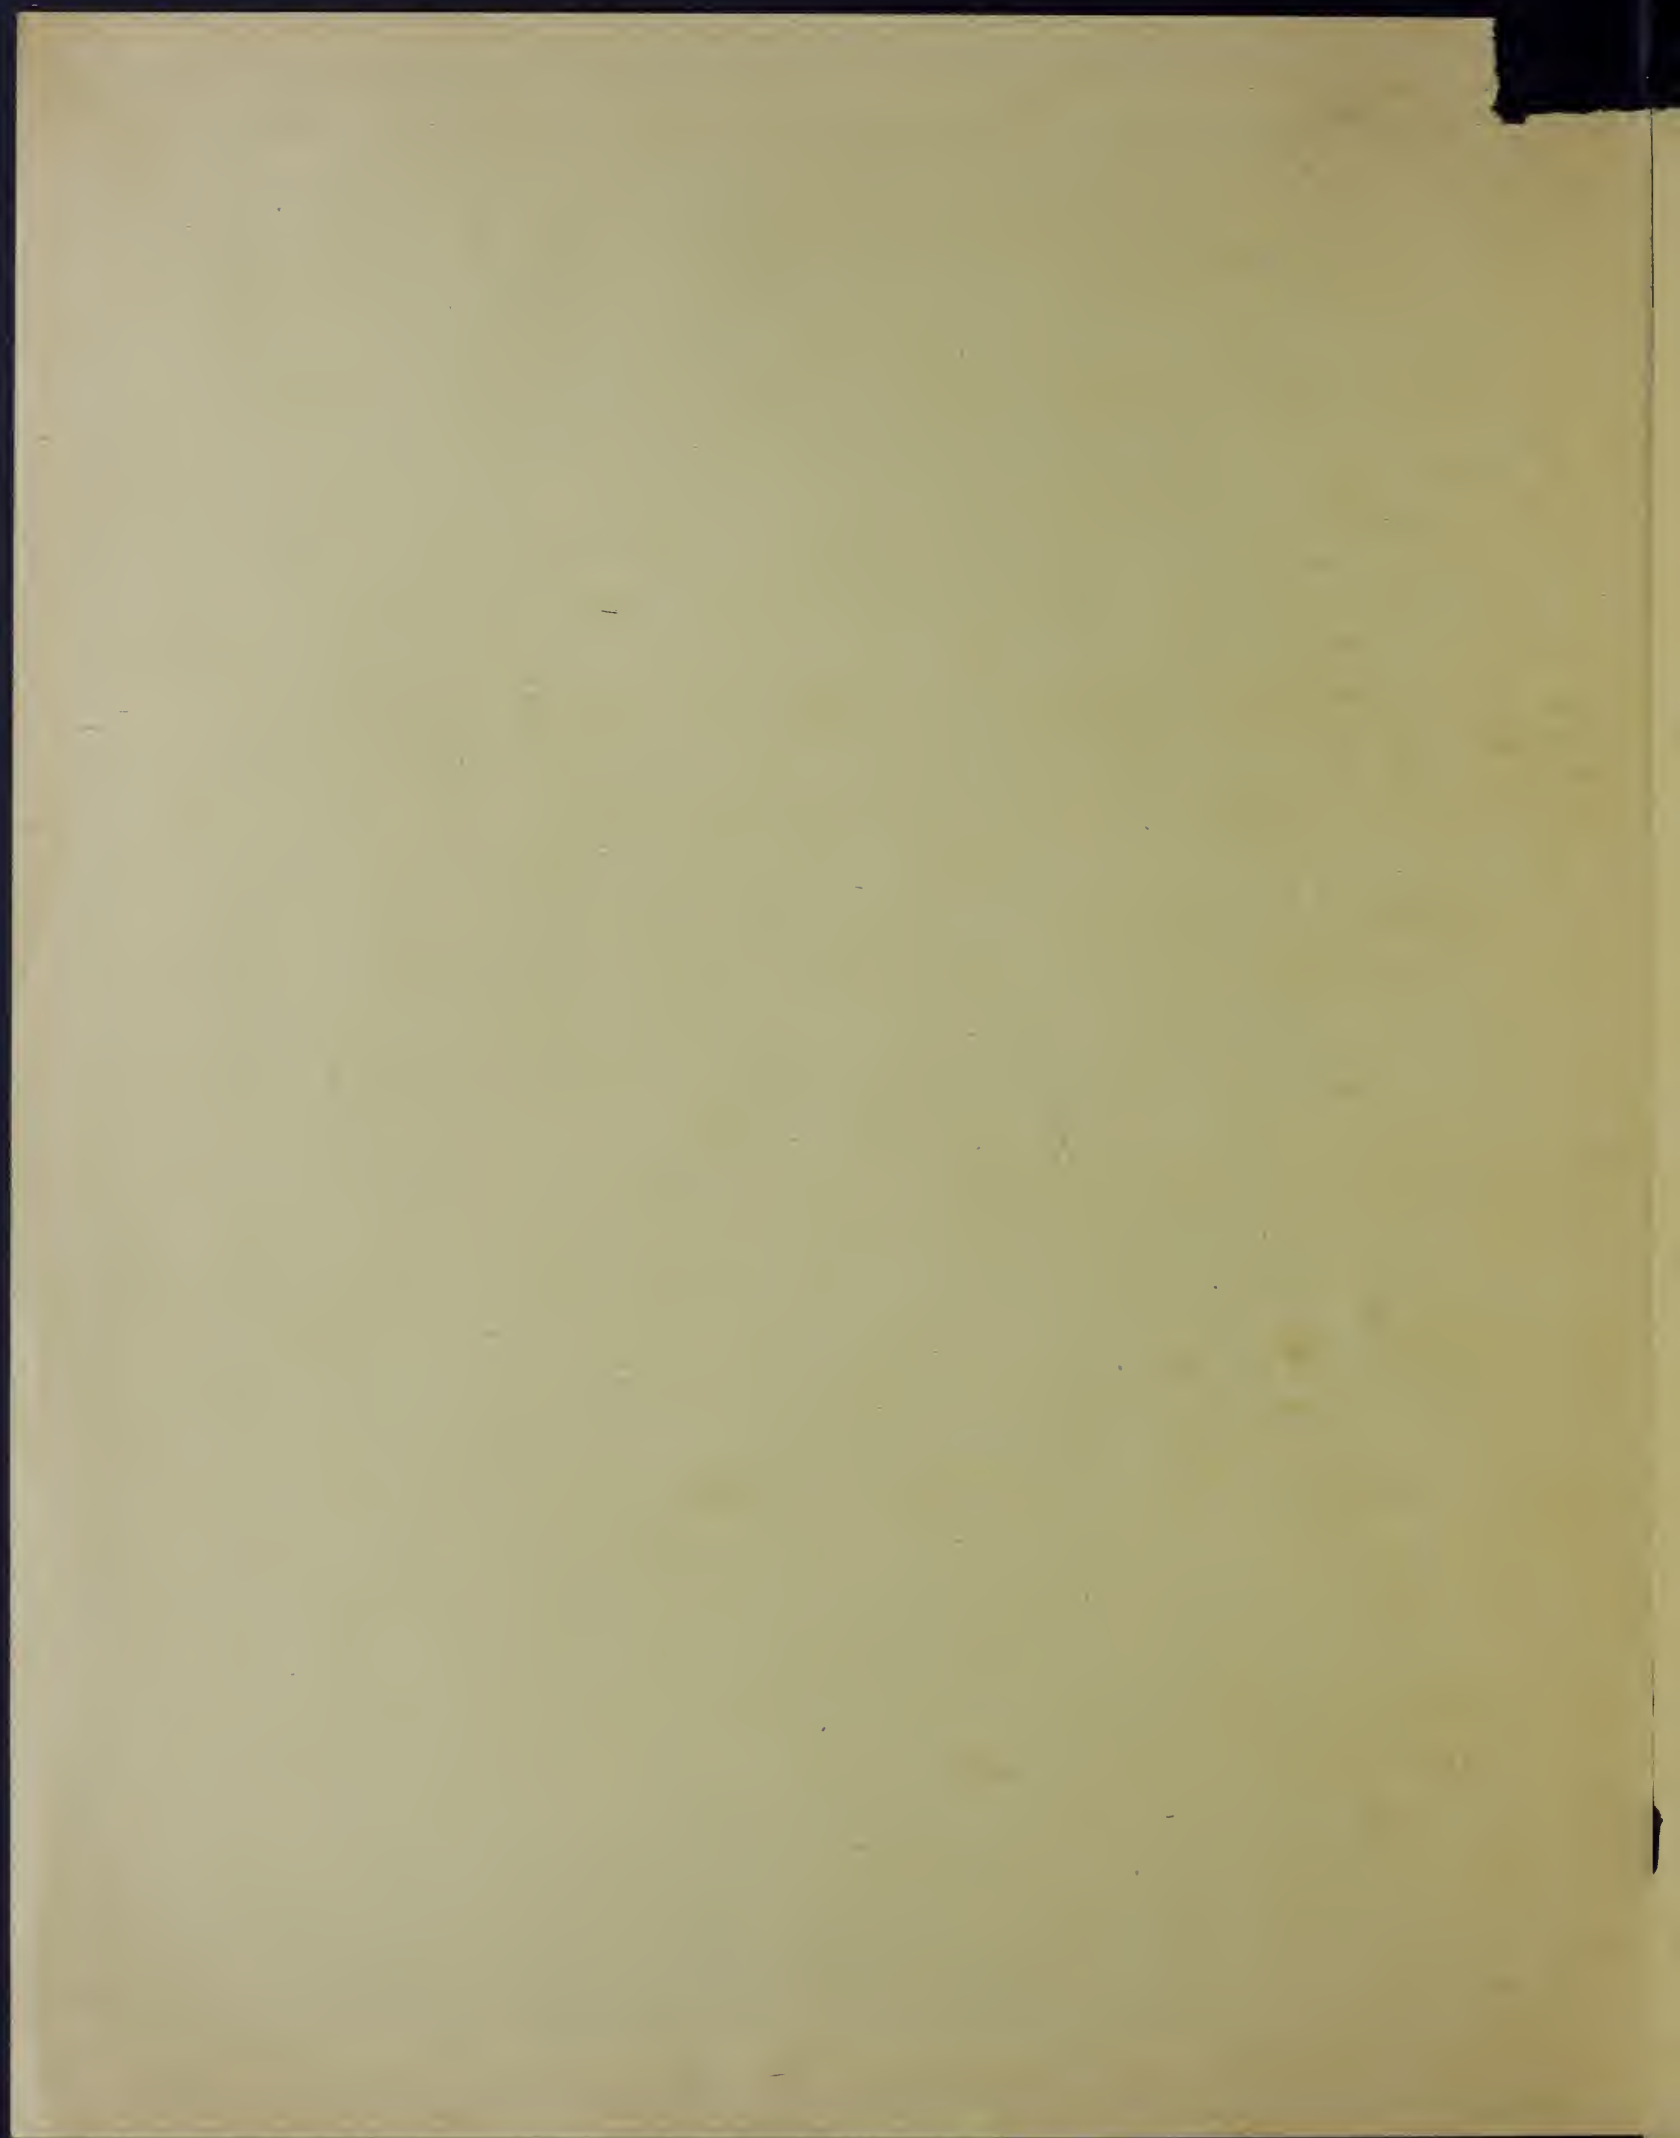

By the way, what is happening to the Central N. Y. Gen. Soc.? I had a note some weeks ago regarding the delay, but nothing since. I have not paid dues for this year, as I do not know to whom I should send it, now that Mrs. Arneson has resigned.

I am enclosing a few notes on the Ducolon Family. These I gathered, in order to assist a Psychiatrist friend of mine. He has made quite a study of the family. I hesitate to suggest that you, or your friend, write to him, as he is a recent widower, with a growing family, and a very busy practice, as well as being proprietor and director of the local (Kingston) Institute of Psychotherapy. He is Dr. George Scott, Union Street, Kingston. If your friend is a descendant of the Ducolons, he might conceivably be interested.

I have another interest at the moment. Two local women, Mrs. Vanalstine and Mrs. Edwin Horne, were born on ~~Adolphustown~~ Wolfe Island. Their mother was a Hasler. A cousin of theirs, Mrs. Marjorie Thompson, of Picton, a friend of my wife, is also a daughter of a Hasler, sister to Mrs. Vanalstine's mother. In your research, have you discovered anything about these Haslers and Hornes?

As the page is becoming full, I had better close, with my apology in being so tardy.

Yours sincerely,

DUCOLON.

Stephen Ducolon on trial for robbery

Albany Nov 4 1778

Stephen Ducolon sentenced to death for robbery of Asst Van Schoack.
At time of trial it appeared that he was unable to speak
Believed by judges that he "obstinately and wilfully stood mute"

It appears that he was part of a gang

He avowed his innocence and was sentenced to death on 27 November aside at their own request because they alleged they were (tho distantly) connected to him by marriages. The prisoner challenged twenty jurors peremptorily, and long persisted in his challenge to a twenty first, tho' he said he could not give any other reason than that he did not like him

The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the crystal lattice. It is shown that the structure of the crystal lattice is determined by the balance of the forces of attraction and repulsion between the atoms.
 The forces of attraction are due to the electrostatic interaction between the positive and negative ions, while the forces of repulsion are due to the overlap of the electron shells of the atoms. The balance of these forces determines the equilibrium distance between the atoms, which is the lattice constant.
 The lattice constant is a function of the temperature and the pressure. At high temperatures, the thermal expansion of the crystal leads to an increase in the lattice constant. At high pressures, the compression of the crystal leads to a decrease in the lattice constant. The change in the lattice constant with temperature and pressure can be calculated from the theory of the structure of the crystal lattice.
 The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the properties of the crystal lattice.
 It is shown that the properties of the crystal lattice are determined by the structure of the crystal lattice. The properties of the crystal lattice include the density, the refractive index, the thermal conductivity, the electrical conductivity, the magnetic susceptibility, and the piezoelectric coefficient. The properties of the crystal lattice can be calculated from the theory of the structure of the crystal lattice.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to complete a genealogy of the Detlor family, and believe they lived around Naponee, Fredericksburgh Township, Richmond Township, Lennox County, and Midland District. Can you trace this family for me, or refer this letter to someone who can. I am enclosing 25¢ postage for mailing of data. I am willing to pay some one to search local archives for these records, or local history, Are there any Detlors living there now.

I would appreciate any help that you can give me. I am enclosing a Detlor family sketch of 1778- 1854, showing they lived around there. Can you tell me where these townships are , and anything about this family Thank you.

Very truly yours,

DETLO FAMILY.

There are about 30 entries in the Public Archives of Canada, Dominion Archivist Lab. Ottawa Ontario Canada which need checking and copying pertinent ones.

Preceding on the United Empire Loyalist Commission Quebec 1787, Ontario Archives report of 1904, shows that Valentine Detlor came to New York State, born 1735 near Abbey Lix Ireland. Came to Ny State 1756 and had 312 acre farm. In Revolutionary war about 1776 he and his family fled to Canada and the American rebels confiscated his NY property. Valentine Detlor was given land in Sept 23, 1784. Samuel, George, and Jacob Detlor drew Canadian land in 1784 in Fredericksburgh, and were adults then.

R O I 15 Vol 28 Pages 163 -176. John Valentine Detlor, son of Samuel Detlor drew land in 1834 (Upper Canada land Book Q page 362) These Detlors settled in Lennox County, Fredericksburgh, Midland District and Richmond around 1777-78- to 1834. (W. L. H.)

Samuel Detlor may have been born about 1750-1760. He married Catherine Empey (Thomas Empey), she was born 1779 in Queens County Ireland, went to USA year after the Irish Rebellion, and then to Ernestown Ontario with her father. She died April 6, 1862 at Waponee Ont, burial with Samuel Detlor at Switzer Burial Ground at Fredericksburgh. (W. L. H.)

Some of the Family names are John, Valentine, Jacob, Elizabeth (who married the first Methodist minister Darius Dunham), George, Anne Anna. (W. L. H.)

John Valentine Detlor was born July 14, 1806 in Lennox County, died June 23, 1878 at Goderich Ont. founded the first Bank at Waponee, moved to Goderich 1854, 3 times Mayor Goderich.

J V Detlor married Jane Elizabeth Wilde (Jonathan Wilde) Febr 1, 1832. Jane Wilde was born 1804 in Ireland, to Canada 1828, died June 4, 1865 Goderich Ont. She was married to J V Detlor by Rev G Ferguson Febr 1, 1832 with witnesses at wedding Tom Wilde, Elizabeth Detlor, J V Detlor, and Charles Chamberlain. J V Detlor drew Canadian land in 1834 April by the Order of the Council. J V Detlor came from Lennox County, and Richmond Township Midland District, and Jane Wilde came from Fredericksburgh Township and District.

Children of John Valentine Detlor and Jane Elizabeth Wilde.

1. Frances Wilde Detlor. b Oct 28, 1832 Waponee, married Wm Stitt at Goderich 1869
2. John Cartwright Detlor. b Dec 29, 1842 Waponee, died North Bay Ont.
3. Catherine Anne Detlor b May 4, 1834, died 1907 Goderich Ont.
4. Samuel Hill Detlor b 11-9-1838
5. Thomas DeVessey Detlor 6-22-1844

It is possible a George Hill Detlor b 1794 at Fredericksburgh was the son of Geo Detlor a United Empire Loyalist who died in the war of 1813 American invasion, died 1883, lived at Waponee. Geo Hill Detlor had a son W V Detlor born 1823 Fredericksburgh North, lived Waponee, and had a son Sidney Detlor. This appears to be another branch of the family.

It is possible that mention would be made in census figures of those days 1780-1860, Public archives Wm Land of Ottawa, birth, death, property sales and purchases land grants, (Belleville marriage records at Ottawa, Kingston, Waponee, Detlor, Richmond, Fredericksburgh, Lennox County etc, local history, and residences etc. The special interest is from 1770 1860 of the family of John Valentine Detlor - father Samuel Detlor, father Valentine Detlor and their wives and families etc. origins and origin in Ireland etc.

Dear Mr Burleigh:

I have been searching for some like you for many months and and thankful that I have found you, and I do appreciate what you will do for me.
I have heard of some of these files of yours, but have not been able to locate them.
I am enclosing my check for $25.00 and will send more if needed to make a complete report, as I want this to be complete final etc so that we shall never have to make another search again for my children etc. I am interested primarily in the first line with some references to close relatives back as far as possible even to 1600 1700 up to about 1875 and later if you have data on that. I want to learn about the lives activities stories legends etc of all of them origin in Ireland, original names, life in Vermont and NY(I have been searching Ireland but have little to go on) - names like prior to and including Valentine Detlor, Samuel, Geo Mill, George, Elizabeth(who may have married Darius Duhham early first Methodist missionary to Canada?) John Valentine Detlor, Francis Wilde Detlor, the Empey and family who married Samuel Detlor, Jane Elizabeth Wille and parents perhaps Thomas or Johnathan etc ; and anything on the James and Jackson and William Stitt of Huntley and Stittsville 1830-1860- Brussels, Colborne, Auburn, Wawanash and later Wm Stitt around Colerich who married Frances Wilde Detlor(widow of a Smith of Goderich and Clinton)

If possible when typing could you make 3 or 4 carbon copies of the work so save me typing more here as I have 4 sons and want each to have a copy.

Thanks again for all that you will do for me, and go ahead on other avenues if you can find them on anything related to these families.

Very truly yours,

William Detlor Stitt

from Public Archives of Canada, Ottawa 2, Ontario Canada W Kaye Lamb, Dominion Archivist July 30, 1959.

I have received your letter of 27th July, making further inquiries as to the Detlor and Stitt families, on whom you have gathered a good deal of information since you wrote to us in 1931. We hold very few local records, so that for the most of your search you will have to go to the places, searching in cemeteries and registry offices. Your best guide in locating the areas will be a recent Canadian Almanac. Your local library may have a copy, or could borrow one on an interlibrary loan. You might also get advice as to the procedures from the Ontario Archives which specializes in local records. May I suggest that you address your inquiry to Dr G W Spragge, Provincial Archivist of Ontario, Dept of Public Records and Archives Parliament Bldgs Toronto Ontario. I am sure that you will understand that the service is advisory only since neither this institution nor the Ontario Archives employs a research or genealogical staff.

Detlor is in Hastings- Frontenac. The registry office for Frontenac is in Kingston, and for Hastings in Belleville. No doubt you will find that the Detlors were the first settlers of that township since Fredericksburg and Richmond townships are in nearby Lennox County. The Midland District covers the general area and Kingston would be the best place to begin tracing early registrations of deeds for the Detlors. Lachine is now a municipality on the Island of Montreal, Quebec, but as it appears in your record merely as a temporary residence you will not have to search there for the information you require. Any good map of Canada will help you to locate these places.

Tracing the family in the U S and back to the place of origin is going to be a bit difficult. Usually we can get leads through the publications of the Historical Societies of those States which were formerly British colonies. It seems that the Stitts and Detlors were not in New York long enough to leave records of ~~anatomical~~ estates, since nothing appears under those names in volumes of the N Y Historical Society Publications on our shelves. Our library holds only a limited number of works of this type, but I understand that the N Y Public Library gives bibliographical aid to persons interested in genealogy. It may well be able to help you find out what you wish to know and put you in touch with a genealogist who can trace the Irish ancestry. We have found that there are a great many genealogists in the U S who praise the facilities of that library.

Public Archives of Canada, Ottawa - letter August 11, 1959. W Kaye Lamb.

"On receipt of the chart which accompanied your letter of 31 July the manuscript Division found that there was enough information to identify the particular Detlor family in which you are interested. It is a large connection and, as sometimes happens, there seems to be a confusion between near relations and persons of similar names. I doubt that Valentine Detlor should be listed as the founder of your line. He appears to have had three daughters but no son(?) The daughters were Elizabeth, Anna, Anne.

John Detlor who came to Fredericksburg at the same time as Valentine Detlor must have been born prior to 1775, since he was mustered into Jessups Corps. and sent with a detachment under Major John Mairne to Vercheres, Quebec in 1781 (Upper Canada Land Petitions D 12, no. 98)

Samuel, George and Jacob Detlor were also adults when they drew land in Fredericksburg in 1784. (R G 1. L5, Vol 28, pages 163, 176.) This series of papers does not contain the original certificate of a grant to John Detlor, but in Vol 29, there is a certificate for an additional grant 15 December 1791.

John VALENTINE DETLOR was the son of Samuel Detlor. He had come of age by 1834 when he petitioned for land (Upper Canada Land book # Q, page 362).

As I said in my letter 30 July we do not have the type of local records that would enable you to trace births, deaths marriages. When loyalists petitioned for land they stated the corps in which they served and seldom mentioned other particulars. Petitions by or for sons and daughters of loyalists give the names of the father. That is how we were able to trace JOHN VALENTINE DETLOR.

Our indexes give over thirty leads to petitions by members of the Detlor family but as we have no research division it is not possible for us to follow them up. If you could pay us a visit, an archivist will show you the different series and the quickest and most rewarding approach to them. "

WDS believes that John Valentine Detlor b 1806 Lennox County, died June 23, 1878 at Goderich, had his father- SAMUEL Detlor, the United Empire Loyalist who fled to Canada with other Detlors like perhaps his brothers Jacob, George and Elizabeth (or relatives, and John. This Samuel Detlor apparently married the Catherine Empey who was born 1779 Queens County Ireland, died April 6, 1862 age 84, and whose father was Thomas Empey who went to Ernestown Canada, but first went to N Y state the year before the Irish Revolution, or rebellion. She went to Fredericksburg and is buried beside her husband Samuel Detlor Switzer Burial ground. Samuel Detlor is thought to have died prior to 1862. The Valentine Detlor who was born 1735 may have been the father or uncle or relative of Samuel Detlor, but Samuel Detlor's son was our John Valentine Detlor b 1806 died 1878 at Goderich, who was the father of our Frances Wilde Detlor who married William STITT.

A little research by some one in the Archives office and at Naponee would bring more data to carry the names back further, (at Ottawa and Naponee Ont.

from the scrap book of Catherine Ann Detlor (Christopherson) A&S aunt Kate Goderich Ont March 19, 1883. " On the 19th inst. by the Rev T M Campbell at the residence of Wm Stitt, esq. Smith, daughter of the late L H Smith, Esq. of Clinton Ont, (mother is Frances Detlor(Smith) Stitt), and the grand daughter of the late John Valentine Detlor, Esq. of Goderich Ontario.

Dec 18, 1861. " On the 18th inst. by the Rev J Stinson, D D President of the Canadian Conference in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, Goderich, the Rev H Christopherson, Wesleyan Minister Glandford, was married to Catherine Ann, second daughter of J.V. Detlor, Esq. of Goderich. Ontario Canada."

Obituary - " It is our sad duty to-day to record the sudden death of the beloved wife of our much esteemed townsman, J V Detlor, Esq. On Sunday morning last Mrs. Detlor was in good health and exalted spirits. But the lamp that burned so brightly - the cheerful glow of spirit s which had shone with undimmed lustre for the past thirty years, was flashing out to adorn and beautify a happy home for the last time on earth. A few moments after returning from morning services, and while engaged in some household duty, she was suddenly stricken with paralysis, and without being able to address a last parting word to her loved ones, she gradually sank until Wednesday evening when the silver cord was gently loosed and she departed. It was an inexpressible satisfaction that she was able before the final scene, in the possession of consciousness, to clasp the hands of her husband and large family in a fond silent adieu. There is no flattering mockery in saying that the deceased lady was one of the noblest of women. She was a sincere consistent Christian, a most devoted and beloved wife, a priceless mother, and was regarded with the highest esteem and love by all who found a place in her large warm and friendly heart. We venture in all delicacy and sincerity to say, what we know to be a fact, that the heart felt sympathy of this whole community is with the bereaved family in their irreparable loss, and we can only breathe the wish that they will be enabled to take comfort in the hope of meeting the dear wife and mother in a far brighter and better world. The body was followed to the Cemetery this afternoon by an immense concourse of people.

" The Mitchell Advocate of last Friday, says ' Mrs Christopherson has removed to Goderich much to the regret of her many friends in and around Mitchell.'"

MRS FRANCES DETLOT STITT.

"The old Methodist preachers fondly cherish the names and the memories of the old Methodist homes, where the hearty welcome and the abundant hospitality relieved their weariness and want. One of these happy and hospitable homes was that of John Valentine Detlor, Esq of Goderich, some four years since gone home to his reward. Out from this home went sons and daughters bearing the old loyalty to Methodism, and the same spirit of hearty welcome to the Methodist ministers.

Frances Wild Detlor, the eldest daughter of this old home, was born October 28, 1833, and died December 3, 1885. She was first married in January 1859, to Mr L.H. Smith of Clinton - a lovely and devoted Christian man, whose light she made radiant with the light and gladness of her own spirit. Six years later she was made to drink the bitter cup of widowhood, and though sad and sudden was the stroke of death upon that home, yet she bore it with a Christian fortitude that surprised her friends. Five years later, viz, In July 1869, she married Mr William Stitt of Goderich, an excellent Christian man, with whom she lived happily over sixteen years and who survives her. Three children are left to mourn the loss of a mother, the eldest of whom is Mrs Alfred Jamieson of Stratford. Mrs Stitt was converted early in life and maintained steadfastly from her conversion a consistent and attractive Christian character. In referring to her life and place in the Church, I cannot do better than quote the language of her brother in law. the Rev John Hough, who in a letter to me, writes as follows " I was intimately acquainted with her for thirty years or more. She was a very modest and retiring Christian, though earnestly devoted to God, and his cause. She was one of the most tenderly affectionate wives and mothers I ever knew, and no sacrifice seemed to be too great to make for her family and friends. She always filled her home with sunshine. Those who knew most of her, modest graces prized her most highly. In Goderich and Clinton, where she was well known as a maiden, a wife, and a widow, her unobtrusive, consistent and earnest piety will long be remembered. Such a life must bring victory at its close. It was my great privilege to stand by her death bed and receive from her assurances of W D STITT Hastings Nebraska July 1959. from the scrap book of Catherine Ann Detlor Christopherson (AES Aunt Kate with whom he lived 1885-90) Detlor 2. confident trust in Jesus and victory over death. Shortly before the close, she seemed to be looking across the border, and rapturously said to me, 'I have seen it, I have seen it! Oh such landscapes. @ it was heaven! It was heaven! I wish I could tell you half. But I shall soon be there.' Thus lived and died one who to me and mine was a devoted friend. Many dear ones had gone before; and have I believe renewed their friendships in the heavenly home " T M Campbell.

" Again the angel of death invaded the home of Dⁿ and Mrs Jameson and claimed for its own the soul of one who but a few weeks ago was apparently in good health, the thoughts of death being connected only with the little one laid at rest some months ago. Mrs H A Jameson was a native of Canada, and for the past year has made her home with her husband's brother G A Jameson. During her residence in this place she has made many warm friends.. gifted musician.. Her death occurred early Monday morning of heart failure, superinduced by a fever from which she has been suffering for the past four x weeks. Her husband is a traveling salesman with headquarters in St Lawrence County, and was not able to get here until Wednesday morning. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, the internment being made in the cemetery in this village.

Obit. Her many old friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs Jameson, wife of H A Jameson, formerly of Stratford, who recently died in Little Valley, N Y of fever. She had previously lost her family of young children by diphtheria. Mrs Jameson's maiden name was Hattie Smith, and she was at one time a resident of Goderich. She was a native of Clinton, where her father L H Smith had deceased some years ago, was a member of the mercantile firm of Smith and Fisher. Her mother(Frances Wilde Detlor Smith) afterwards married William Stitt....

Obit- It is our sorrowful duty today to record the death of Louis H Smith, Esq. merchant of Clinton Ont, son in law of our esteemed townsman J V Detlor...."

.. death of E A Dunham of St Thomas in the 77th year of his age, son of Rev Darius Dunham, one of the first two Methodist preachers who came to Canada.... He was one of the few remaining links with Methodism of one hundred years ago. It is a curious circumstance that the first two Methodist preachers both fell in love with the same young lady. Mr Dunham, senior was the successful suitor. William Losee, of whose unspoken attachment, Mr Dunham was unaware, was so affected by the circumstance that he lost his mind(mental balance and was compelled to retire from the ministry, a strange bit of romance to be associated with the pious toils of the first two Methodist missionaries of this Country. Dr Carroll says he does not wonder that those ardent and not too much experienced young men were so smitten with one in youth, who when he saw her at the age of 60, was still fascinating(Catherine Detlor Christopherson wrote here t-hat this girl was Miss Elizabeth Detlor, the sister of the late Samuel Detlor, and aunt of the late John Valentine Detlor, who died at Goderich 1878 age 72 years." THE LATE JOHN VALENTINE DETLOR ESQ. From the _____ Signal.

It is with feelings of deep regret we are called upon to record the death of John Valentine Detlor, Esq an old and much respected citizen, which took place at his residence Sunday 2nd ult. The subject of this sketch was born in the County of Lennox July 14, 1806. His father SAMUEL DETLOR, was one of that little band of devoted loyalists who came into the wilderness at the time of the Revolution choosing toil and hardship in the backwoods of Canada for the sake of King and Country rather than enjoy wealth and plenty under a Republic. Mr Detlor remained on the farm until he grew up to manage his estate and suffered all the hardships and toils of a settler's life. He left the farm and for many years was engaged in milling, lumbering and mercantile life in that section of the country. Possessed of indomitable energy, industry, and perseverance his whole life was one of incessant toil. In those early days advantages for education were not as great as now. Possessed of a fine mind he never neglected an opportunity of storing it with useful knowledge. . thirst for education.. His well stocked library shows evidence of hard and incessant toil... Some 24 years ago he came to this town, and for many years was engaged in a mercantile career. Three times he filled the Mayor's chair and for several years other positions in the town and county council, school board..."

Biographical. MRS CATHERINE DETLOR of Fredericksburgh. "The subject of the following brief memoir was born in Queens County, Ireland, in the year 1779. She was converted to God in her tenth year, and soon associated herself with the Methodist society. Her father THOMAS EMPEY esq and family emigrated to America and settled in New York State in the year before the Irish Rebellion. The family removed to Canada, and settled in ERNESTOWN, where our departed sister was joined in marriage to Mr Samuel Detlor, who preceded her to rest several years. They together became members of the Third Methodist class which formed in Canada, and which met in their own houses, which was not only a welcome home for the weary traveller itinerate for many years., but for more than 20 years was the regular preaching place for the neighborhood in which they resided. Her laborious pains-taking and care will be remembered gratefully by many of our ministers who still live, but by more who are gone, with Dunham and Losee, entered upon and cultivated the moral wastes of Canada in those early days..... Suffice it to say in the language of one who had been favored with an intimate acquaintance with her for nearly half a century," She was one of the excellent of the earth". On her death bed and with adoring gratitude to God, she said to the writer, that she had been enabled through grace to maintain her steadfastness as a Christian and member of the Methodist Church for 74 years without backsliding". Her advice to her children, under peculiar circumstances is characteristic of the woman'. be a man be a Christian, be a gentleman! Never do a mean or dishonorable act; never do that which would cause you to be ashamed!'. died April 6, in the 84 year of age... ' She was interred in the Switzer Church Burying Ground, by the side of her husband, amongst many relatives who preceded her...

Deceased was in his 77th year, and was born July 23, 1814 at Naponee. He was the son of Rev Darius Dunham, the first ordained minister in Canada. He has been collector of Customs, at different points for 35 years. He leaves one son George, in California, a daughter Mrs McGreer in Vienna Ont, and his wife (His mother must have been Elizabeth Detlor, sister of the late Samuel Detlor, and aunt of John Valentine Detlor.).

Mr J V Detlor died in Goderich on Sunday age 72. He has been a resident of Goderich since 1854. He was three times mayor of Goderich."

From the Guardian- JOHN VALENTINE DETLOR.

John Valentine Detlor was born in the County of Lennox Febr 14, 1806. He was a descendant of the PALANTINES, and his grandfather and father during the American revolution rather than take up arms against the British forces, left The State of New York (possibly Vermont), and came to Canada. From his youth he was connected with the Methodist Church, and up to the last took a very warm interest in its welfare. In 1854 he removed to Goderich. During his residence in Goderich, he filled the office of Mayor three times, and served for several years in the County and Town councils, and on the Board of High School Trustees. For many years he has been an active member of the Church, filling various offices of trust, member of the Trust Board, leader of a class, and for many years recording ~~secretary~~ steward of the Circuit. My own personal acquaintance with Brother Detlor commenced with my appointment to this circuit, a year ago. I found him at that time very ill with typhoid fever. He recovered but the disease had left behind its mark, which ultimately carried him to his grave. He was almost a constant sufferer, but about ten weeks before his death he became decidedly worse, and from that time until his death, they had to watch him constantly day and night. The evening before I left for Conference I had a most interesting service, in which the whole family shared. I administered to him the sacrament for the last time/// ... On Sabbath morning June 23rd at a quarter to eleven, just as the bell summoned us to the house of prayer, his spirit received its summons to go and join in the solemn ~~services~~ services of the sanctuary above. ... He was powerful in prayer, in his ~~xxx~~ vigor must have been powerful in exhortation. He was always afraid of giving trouble to others.. Thus lived John Valentine Detlor at the mature age of 72. DEATH OF MR DETLOR It is with profoundest regret that we find it to be our duty this week to chronicle the death of John Valentine Detlor, which occurred on Sunday morning last at half past ten o'clock. The deceased gentleman had been sick for several months and had been a great sufferer... He was born in the County of Lennox Febr 14, 1806, and during the early part of his life was engaged in Milling, lumbering, and general mercantile business. In 1854 he removed to Goderich, and having been prosperous and by his estimable personal qualities having secured the respect of all his fellow townsmen, he was elected to the honorable position of Mayor three times. He also served for several years in the County and Town councils and on the Board of the High School Trustees. He was a descendant of the PALATINES, and his grandfather and father during the American Revolution, rather than take up arms against the British forces, left the State of New York (possible Vermont), and came to Canada, preferring hardships incident to a settler's life at that time, than to be disloyal to the CROWN... The above from the Goderich Starr.

MRS DETLOR. The beloved wife of John Valentine Detlor, Esq of Goderich. "The object of writing a memoir should be to set forth, for the improvement of the living the excellencies of the beloved and pious dead, p to trace the cause of action to its principles in order to magnify the grace of God, and exhibit the effect of true religion on the heart and life.. MRS DETLOR was born in Ireland, of pious parents her father's house being a home for the Wesleyan Itinerant. She was favoured with Godly counsels, fervent prayers and hold examples of many eminent ministers of Christ, such as Waugh, Ousely, and Tackabut, and when but a child she accompanied her pious mother to the Methodist class meeting, where "They that feared the Lord spake often one to another. The only true key to Character is conversion to the knowledge and faith of the Lord Jesus Christ. This saving change Mrs Detlor happily experienced when about eleven years of age..... Mrs DETLOR came to Canada in the year 1828, with her widowed father, ~~and~~ and settled near Naponee. She at once joined the only little class tehcn at Naponee, of 7 members, and walked three miles to and from class every week, saying 'I have been and still will go, 'Tis like a little heaven below'. It was here that she became acquainted with her now ~~dear~~ bereaved and sorrowing partner, an acquaintance which ripened into tenderness friendship and a happy marriage union. She was indeed a help mate for him. Their last walk together was to the class meeting, and to the public service of God's house; . Then home with a cheerful heart and a happy frame of mind, she began with her accustomed energy to assist in preparing the family repast, but alas! in a momenta struck with paralysis, she sunk into the arms of her friends and was borne to her dying couch, speechless, and almost unconscious. From Sunday noon till Wednesday evening she lingered on the shores of time... she recognized the sorrow stricken group around her dying bed, pressed them to her heart, gave them her last token, and passed away, beckoning them to the skies. The Rev N F English, her former pastor write 'A thousand ~~human~~ memories come rushing in upon my mind of her calm and blessed testimonies to the Glory of Divine grace in the class room, of the deep devotional expressions of her countenance in the pew..... The Huron Signal gave a very kind and sympathetic editorial from which we make the following extract:.' There is no flattering mockery in saying that the deceased lady was one of the noblest of women. She was a sincere, consistent Christian, a most devoted wife, a priceless mother...' A numerous assemblage of all classes and creeds attended the funeral. The Rev Mr Ellwood, Rector of ~~Goderich~~ ~~St. James~~ ~~St. James~~ taking part in the solemn services. A funeral sermon was preached on Sabbath evening January 15th, our church was immensely crowded..... JANE ELIZABETH WILDE

Extract from a letter written by Uncle James Stitt to Ben Wilson.

While Ben was in Ireland he wrote to Uncle James for some information about his ancestors.

"Your great grandmother, Rebecca Ferguson, had only one brother, Robert Burns Ferguson, born of Scottish parents in Killeshandra, Cavan County Ireland.

Rebecca Ferguson married Capt Shannon. They settled on a farm on the estate of Lord Farnham, near the castle, and the young bride Becky, and Mildred, the only daughter of the Castle, were very intimate friends until the young "lady" married an army Colonel, and went to live on one of the Farnham estates in the South of Ireland.

Robert Ferguson was converted under John Wesley, married Elizabeth Creighton, settled in Philadelphia, established the Bethel Chapel for sailors, and at his death bequeathed it for their use.

John Wesley sent Elizabeth's brother, James Creighton, and Dr Adam Clarke
(he of the commentary) to Ireland about that time, to preach."

TRIBUTE TO BROTHER WILLIAM STITT WRITTEN BY DR JAMES STITT

"Without the advantages of the higher education, so called- derived from colleges or books, he possessed moral culture, which was far better. His one book, the Bible, was thoroughly studied; his one book of poems, Wesley's Hymns, largely memorized. With such literature, and on such a firm foundation, his moral character was formed and nurtured.
and this was the secret of his noble life of self-sacrifice.

His character was free from extravagance or eccentricity, and distinguished by sagacity, unselfishness, and dignity. Duty was the ruling principle of his conduct; the sanctity of conscience was always guarded. No instance can be adduced in which he was actuated by a sinister motive, or endeavored to attain an end by unworthy means.
Truth, integrity, and justice were deeply rooted in his mind, and nothing could rouse his indignation so soon, or so utterly destroy his confidence, as the discovery of the want of these virtues in anyone whom he had trusted. Weakness, follies, indiscretions he could forgive, but dishonesty he never forgot and rarely pardoned.

He was candid and sincere, true to his friends and faithful to all. Self-control was perhaps the most remarkable trait in his character. It was in part the result of discipline, yet he seemed by nature to have possessed this power to a degree which has been denied to other men.

His ambition was of that noble kind which aims to excel in whatever it undertakes. Sensitive to the appreciation of others, he made no concessions to gain their flattery. Cautious without timidity, bold without rashness, cool in council, clear in foresight, deliberate but firm in action, patient under reverses, steady, persevering and self possessed, he met and conquered every obstacle in his path to honor and success. His was a harmonious union of good judgment and moral power.

Being the eldest brother of a large family suddenly deprived at once of their father and his fortune, he nobly came to their rescue, and assumed their support and guidance at the sacrifice of his own ambitions and prospects, and at a point in his young life manhood when he was fired with all the enthusiasm which makes for a successful business career. His nerves tingling with an inherited energy, he had all the elements which go to the making of one of the "Captains of Industry" of the present day, yet he was constantly handicapped in the race.

1886 - William Stitt, was apparently crushed at the death of his young wife in 1885, and later went to Chicago Ill and entered the real estate and insurance business

Dear Dr. Spraggs:

I am sending you some family data on the DETLOR family and would like some help on it. I am willing to pay a fee for the research and or advice, as to where to find the data, if not in your files etc. Enclosed is a rough family tree, and some typed data taken from the scrap book of Catherine Detlor Christopherson of Goderich Ontario. I have always thought that John Valentine Detlor born 1806 Lennox County who married Jane Elizabeth Wilde was the son of John Valentine Detlor born about 1775, but Mrs Christopherson mentions that he was the son of SAMUEL DETLOR who married Catherine Empey (born 1779 died 1862). Can you straighten us out on this. Perhaps there were several sons John Valentine Samuel Geo Hill, John of the original VALENTINE DETLOR born about 1735, who was the original (or brothers) United Empire Loyalist who fled from New York State 1776 to Ontario ?? And where does the Elizabeth Detlor who married the 1st Methodist missionary to Canada Rev Darius Dunham (Perhaps she was a sister of John V and Samuel and Geo Hill DETLOR.) Please return the data only after you have finished. You may copy any data that is of use to you. Mr W Kaye Lamb Dominion archivist of Public Archives of Canada Ottawa referred me to you, for further information.

From Ottawa Archives " On March 31st 1931 you sent us " In reply to your letter in the census of 1851, I found Lennox County, one JOHN DETLOR, age 73, living with Bernard DETLOR, probably his son whose family Isabella age 27, Harriet, age 7, John, Bary W age 4, Ahida age 2. ... I also found in our official list of Loyalists that Valentine Detlor's son JOHN received 100 acres of land in Fredericksburgh, Lennox county when a boy His certificate is dated Sept 23, 1784. VALENTINE DETLOR was a soldier in The Kings Royal Regiment of New York, and lived in Charlotte County. I enclose a copy of his claim submitted to the Loyalist Commissioners at Quebec in 1787.

916 VALENTINE DETLOR, late of Charlotte County. 28th September
He resided at Carleton Island, and La Chine (where?).

Is a native of Ireland. Came to America in 1756. Settled in 1756 in Camd District District; joined in 1776 at Crown Point. Served during the war. Had 312 acres land leased in Camd District. They had a deed of a large tract of land amongst 10 of them (were they all Detlors?) Carskallan was one. seven years before the war. They were to have fresh deed, each for his own share. They had not got their deeds, but they each had got their own shares laid out. Claimant's share was 312 acres, 25 acres clear, built a house and barrack.

When claimant went away, the rebels turned away his wife and family and so they did to the other families.

1 yoke oxen, 1 do steers, 3 cows, 13 sheep, utensils, furniture, potatoes, corn in the ground.

Says this is not Vermont, the line runs between Canada and Ashington (where?).

John Embury, witness:

Knew claimants place. He had 16 or 17 acres clear. He had near 300 acres. He had a yoke of oxen, and cattle and sheep taken by the rebels on account of his joining the British"

Ontario Archives Report 1904.

Proceedings of the Loyalist Commissioners at Quebec 1787."

I would like to know more about their origins, the original Valentine Detlor who his wife was, and where the Wilde's came from. Following is what we believe to be true:

1. Valentine Detlor, born about 1735. We believe his family were French Huguenots, from Abbey Lis (Abbey Lakes Ireland near the estate of Lord DeVisci (DeVessey), he landed in the States about 1756, settled in Camd District Carskallan, Charlotte County, fled from States to Canada 1776 as U. E. L.

2. John Valentine Detlor born about 1775. When a boy he received 100 acres of land from his father's claim ... etc who was his wife and family.

Who is the Samuel Detlor who married Catherine Empey, (born 1719 died 1862 see typed script attached), who was the George Hill Detlor, and Elizabeth DETLOR who married the first missionary Methodist to Canada Rev Darius Dunham.

then on the 3rd line we have JOHN VALENTINE DETLOR (who we know more about), born about 1800 ~~xxx~~ Naponee Ont. die June 23, 1878 Goderich Ont. one of first Mayors 3 times of Goderich. he was a friend of Sir John A McDonald, premier of Canada; in a bank at Naponee, ship owner merchant at Goderich. Married Jane Elizabeth Wilde, born 1804 dau of Johathon or Thomas Wilde. died 1865 Goderich married Febr 1, 1832 By Rev G Ferguson. He was from Richmond Township, Midland District, and Jane Wilde was from Fredericksburgh Township and District. Witnesses at the wedding were Thomas W Wilde, Elizabeth Dettlor, and Charles Chamberlain.

4. Children of JOHN VALENTINE DETLOR of Goderich Ont. ~~born~~ 1854 - ~~Born~~ 1800.

- a. John Cartwright Dettlor b Dec 29, 1842 Naponee
- b. Frances Wilde Dettlor b Oct 28, 1832 Naponee die 1885 Goderich 1st married L H Smith who died, then married William Stitt born April 17, 1835 Huntley (where?) died Nov 1923 Hastings Febr.
children: Albert Stitt born Nov 2nd 1876 Goderich Frances Dettlor born Goderich married Geo Osborne.
- c. Catherine Ann b May 4, 1834 lived Goderich Clinto, married Rev

- d. Samuel Hill Dettlor born 4-9-1838 married a Freeman.
- e. Thomas DeVessey Dettlor, Born 6-22 1844 married 1-17-1863 Alice Schramm etc

I am enclosing ~~55.00~~ for any preliminary work, as I cannot get to Toronto now, and would appreciate any answers, additions, or suggestions on further research on this early family, especially prior to 1850. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Mr. W. D. Stitt,
P. O. 435,
Hastings, Nebraska, U. S. A.

Dear Mr. Stitt:

Your letter of 28th ult. has just arrived, together with notes on the Detlor Family. I am taking this opportunity of replying to it.

For the past twenty-five years I have been gathering data on our early families of the region about Kingston and the Bay of Quinte area, and I have amassed a great deal of material from one source or another. It has been my ambition to gather this information in individual family files, although, at present, this is incomplete. By this I mean that I have the material, but have not been able to sort it out, family by family. This takes time and patience.

I have reviewed your letter carefully, and I can report that I can supply you with a great deal of interesting and pertinent data. At the same time, I am in a position to point out future lines of investigation.

My material, from which information can be gained, include the following:

- Maldimand Papers (Revolutionary period)
- War Office Papers ditto
- U. S. Loyalist Claims (which you have)
- U. S. Loyalist List
- Land Records of Ontario.
- Detlor file (obits, miscellaneous notes)
- George H. Detlor Diary & family tree.

The above sources will supply information about the Detlor, Empey and Wild families, and will be able to show clear descent from Pre-Revolutionary Vermont to yourself. I assume that you wish only your branch of the family, and not all the numerous branches of these families.

Having given the situation a quick look, it would appear that sorting, collecting and typing would involve about twenty-five dollars. If this is agreeable to you, please indicate in your reply.

Dear Dr Burleigh:

The librarian of Queens University of Kingston Mr Gundy has referred me to you for additional data. I am having great difficulty gathering any local data on a genealogy of the Valentine Detlor, Samuel Detlor, and John Valentine Detlor 1750-1880 around Naponee, Richmond and Fredericksburgh Townships Lennox County, and Catherine Empey and Jonathan Tom and Jane Elizabeth Wilde; and Jackson and James and William Stitt of Huntley and Stittsville, Goulbourne Township Carleton Co. near Ottawa, and the origin of Detlor, Hastings County, North of Belleville. . The Detlors and Wildes were U E L fleeing NY state about 1776 to Canada and drawing land in 1784- 1824 etc. .1874

I am willing to pay for a research on these families and would like to buy any used U E L books, local histories town records or manuscripts typed or photo copied relating to my ancestors .

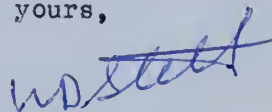

Can you do any work for me on your fee basis, or supervise or refer me to others. I need help, as I cannot find any willing competent researchers in the Naponee, Kingston, Detlor areas at the local level. I am certain there are local records in libraries, town township or county archives, and births, deaths, marriages, property transfers, church records, cemetery records, U E L and local town histories.

If you can do this work or arrange for it, please go ahead and I will pay your fee, as I am anxious to expedite the work at once.

I wish to thank you for any help that you can give me or suggestions as I am green at this work and need help .

Very sincerely yours,

William Detlor Stitt

I am enclosing my check for $5.00 as a retainer fee for any work postage copying, and will send more if needed, hoping you will do the work or arrange it or refer me to others. Thanks
